

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing this email to cordially invite you to participate in the 7th East Asia Workshop for Marine Environment and Energy (EAWOMEN 2015) and to contribute oral or poster presentations. The EAWOMEN 2015 will take place in the National Taiwan Ocean University (NTOU), Keelung, from 15 to 17 October 2015. Keelung is on the northern coast, about 20 km northeast of Taipei, and October is the best time to visit Taiwan. The meeting will focus on Asia marine environmental sustainability and marine energy development, and is organized by the Department of Marine Environmental Informatics and Marine Energy Developing Center of National Taiwan Ocean University. We will be honored if you will submit papers and participate in the EAWOMEN 2015.

We look forward to seeing you in the conference and to ensure a mutual rewarding experience.

Yours Sincerely,

On behalf of the Conference Organizing Committee,
